

Call for POVIM fund – WS 2022/2023

Information:

- The POVIM fund is intended for CU academic staff who teach a course open to virtual mobility (VM), and administrative staff who take care of the administration and management of VM at CU as part of their agenda.
- Financial support is a one-time benefit to be received with salary.
- Within the open selection procedure, the faculty submits a single application for all its applicants via the electronic records management system (ESS). The addressee is the head of IRO CU.
- Only courses open in the winter semester may receive the funding.
- 4EU+ Shared Courses and Open courses (category 2 and 3) can apply. For an Open Course applying for POVIM, the syllabus in SIS has to be completed by 15th of July.
- The categories and the amount of support are:
 - 15.000 CZK for academics who creates a new course open for virtual mobility,
 - 7.500 CZK for academics who maintain a previously taught course open for virtual mobility and they open it repeatedly,
 - 7.500 CZK for administrative staff managing virtual mobility.

Process:

The faculty ensures the distribution of the information and arranges an internal selection procedure. Approved applications are to be submitted by the faculty in a single application for all its applicants via the electronic records management system (ESS), the addressee is the head of IRO CU. The deadline is 15 July.

The results will be announced after the central selection in mid-August. The money will be transferred to faculties in October (after a notice that all selected courses are taught).

For more information, please see <https://cuni.cz/UK-240.html> (currently only in Czech).

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Vraňislav Kozák', written over a vertical line.

Mgr. Vraňislav Kozák
Head of International Relations Office
Charles University, rectorate