Heidelberg University is a member of the 4EU+ Alliance, consisting of Charles University in Prague, Heidelberg University, Sorbonne University in Paris, the University of Warsaw, the University of Copenhagen and the University of Milan. 4EU+ aims to create a new quality of cooperation between the six universities in manifold areas. In Summer Semester 2021, Heidelberg University offers free Online German Language courses to 60 students and doctoral candidates from its five 4EU+ partner universities. According to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) the German language courses are offered on six different levels: A1, A2 (basic), B1, B2 (intermediate), C1, C2 (advanced). Students with at least intermediate knowledge in the German language can also choose subject-related courses such as German History, Creative Writing or German for Medicine and Biology (see overview link below).

The courses start with a mandatory online placement test to allocate every student to a matching class. The teaching materials will be announced at the beginning of each course.
